As society evolves, so too do the pathways and challenges involved in finding and creating spaces where humans can truly thrive together.

Understanding the Human Need for Connection

At its core, belonging is a fundamental human need—one that psychology and sociology have consistently emphasized. Researchers like Abraham Maslow identified belonging as a core component of the hierarchy of needs, directly influencing mental health, resilience, and overall happiness. In contemporary contexts, feelings of social disconnection have been linked to increased risks of depression, anxiety, and even physical health issues.

The digital age, while expanding our reach, has also introduced new complexities. Virtual
